Young Voices

Our Year 5 Kestrels and choir had an AMAZING time at Young Voices last Friday. They sang their hearts out and danced the night away! It was wonderful to share this experience with them and see their excitement. Mrs Parry and I were very proud!

Events

- Our FUNdraising events have now been finalised and you will find a copy of the poster attached to this letter. We have kept some of our old favourites but are also extending our fundraising to support charities; Comic Relief and Birmingham Hospice. You will receive full details of these events closer to the time.
- Y6 have their Book Breakfast on Monday 5th and we do hope you will be able to join us.
- You will see parents' evening has been added to the calendar for the last week of term. Please do remember if you have concerns before that point, you can discuss them with myself, Mr Ball, Mrs Johnson or Miss Hackett on the doors in the mornings.
- As you are aware, we have sadly had to cancel our RE trips. We will let you know as soon as we are able to rearrange them.
- The children have enjoyed completing ERIC's (our mascot for Enjoying Reading In Class) latest reading challenges. Their thoughtful recommendations made it so hard to choose a winner that we had to extend the number of prizes given! Well done to Carley Y5 for being the overall winner and Boren Y3, Tina Y1 and Ryan Y5 for being very close runner ups! We also had a large group of children receive certificates to recognise their special effort with this challenge. We really do LOVE reading at Bells Farm!

Finally, just to remind you that you will now be invoiced for the sessions you have booked for ASC regardless of whether you use them or not. I did explain the reasons for this in my previous letter so I do hope you understand. You are able to cancel your own bookings or call the school office who will be happy to help.

I am happy to discuss separate arrangements for individual whose circumstances are different. I don't want anyone to feel unsupported so please do come and have a chat and I will be happy to help where possible.

Kind regards,

Miss Williams
Headteacher
